COMMANDER'S COLUMN

Thank You

by Colonel Michael F. Canders

This is my last Commander's column in Team Rescue. It gives me pause to reflect on what the last 24 years here at the 106th have meant to me, particularly the years since September 11, 2001. It has been a great honor to serve with all of you and with your families over these many years. Thank you for that honor.

I witnessed a transition from an Air Rescue and Recovery Group in 1985 in the strategic reserve to the full up combat and domestic operations

Rescue Wing of today. You ramped up following the first Gulf war in 1990 with regular deployments to Operations Northern Watch, Southern Watch, Provide Comfort and other contingencies in that decade. You got into the rhythm of deploying regularly overseas to Kuwait or Turkey or other far off places which proved very important in preparing us for our post 9/11 obligations. Throw in plenty of other activities like MAJCOM and other outside agency inspections, Space Shuttle rescue, domestic operations, intense daily training etc. etc. and you know that we became busier with each passing year in the last century.

You have made American history and continue to write it as our challenges remain unabated.

But what was to come in the 21st century was simply unimaginable. The service and sacrifice over these past 8 years is nothing short of magnificent. From digging for survivors during our rapid response at the World Trade Center on September 11, 2001 to deployments to Iraq, Afghanistan, the Horn of Africa and many other locations around Central Command overseas, you and your families responded to the very rapid need to suddenly become an operational reserve working side by side with our active duty counterparts. And when the call came at home to serve our fellow citizens following Katrina, Rita, Ike and other domestic emergencies requiring life saving, we deployed immediately and very effectively. You saved over 300 lives during this period following 9/11 both here at home and overseas in our combat search and rescue and medevac missions. Your expeditionary combat skills were in high demand around the globe and you left your families and employers when needed. You proved, once again, that Guardsmen can do this important work like the first Guardsmen and their families who served our young nation over 4 centuries ago. You have made American history and continue to write it as our challenges remain unabated.

I am very grateful to have been part of this with you and I consider it a great gift over these many years. The greatest gift, however, that God has given me is my family. As I reflect on my years of service at the 106th, I am particularly grateful for their service and sacrifice. I am equally grateful for the joy, the laughter and the pure fun that we share everyday when we are together. Their love and support was such an important balance to the "occasional" stress of serving our state and nation during these historic times. My family is like many of your families and I am very proud to have served with them as well. Thank you, farewell, may God bless you all and keep you safe as you continue your important work as part of the 106th Rescue Wing. That Others May Live.

GALAXY CAMP

by Staff Sgt. David J. Murphy

The Family Readiness Group of the 106th Rescue Wing at Francis S. Gabreski Airport (ANG), Westhampton Beach, N.Y., hosted its annual week-long summer camp program known as Galaxy Camp from August 10 to August 14. Approximately 40 children, ages 8-17, were involved in the event and all the children were related to members of the 106th.

Right: The Counter Drug Task Force set up their rockwall for members of Galaxy Camp to climb.

NEW COMMANDER

Colonel Thomas J. Owens II is currently assigned to the 174th Fighter Wing, New York Air National Guard, as the Assistant Vice Wing Commander. Prior to his current assignment, he served in Iraq as the 332 Air Expeditionary Wing Operations Group Deputy Commander. He is a 2006 graduate of resident Senior Developmental Education where he was a National Security Fellow at the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Prior to this assignment, Colonel Owens was Commander of the 174th Fighter Wing Operations Group, assuming all duties of the position on 4 May 2003.

Colonel Owens was commissioned in November of 1985 as a Distinguished Graduate of the Air National Guard Academy of Military Science. He earned his pilot wings at Reese AFB, TX and returned to the 138th Fighter Squadron in Syracuse, NY to fly the A-10. He went on to fly the F-16 at Syracuse to include combat in Desert Storm, the Iraqi No-Fly zones, and Operations

Iraqi and Enduring Freedom. Colonel Owens has held numerous positions within the Wing including Weapons Officer, Operations Officer and Commander of the 138th Fighter Squadron, as well as the 138th Expeditionary Fighter Squadron Commander, Al Udeid AB, Qatar.

Colonel Owens is a graduate of the US Air Force's Air War College and holds master's degrees from Cornell University in electrical engineering and business administration. He is a command pilot with over 3800 flying hours, more than 3200 in the F-16 and over 120 combat missions.

South Africans Visit Base

by Master Sgt. Michael Riccardi, Jr.

The National Sea Rescue Institute, a South African organization, sent members of its Air and Sea Rescue team to visit the 106th Rescue Wing for the week of August 10-14, 2009. The ASR team is made of South African civilian volunteers who provide maritime rescue and recovery service along the coast of South Africa. The group visited the 106th and observed some of the pararescuemen's techniques and procedures such as hoisting, fast roping, rope ladders and other alternate infiltration and exfiltration techniques.

The South Africans were treated to four training days with the PJ's as well as one day in New York City which included an orientation flight on an HC-130. Master Sgt. Jueles Roy also coordinated a meeting between the South Africans and the Fire Department of New York. The visit by the South Africans is a part of the National Guard State Partnership Program which is meant to link a state with foreign country for the purpose of supporting the security cooperation objectives.

FAMILY DAY

by Staff Sgt. David J. Murphy

The 106th Rescue Wing hosted its annual Family Day celebration on September 13, 2009 at F.S. Gabreski Airport (ANG), Westhampton Beach, N.Y. The event included a number of different activities such as volleyball, a classic car show, live music and a pie throwing competition for members of the 106th and their families to take part in. The highlight of the day was a Guardian Angel/ aircraft demonstration. The event was sponsored by the Family Readiness Group, the Student Flight, the Friends of the 106th and Home Depot among many other organizations.

When Sick, Stay HOME!

MSgt Ellen Jaccard

With the upcoming flu season and worries of H1N1 spreading . . . We would like to remind everyone to please stay home if you do not feel well.

If you are sick DO NOT report to the Medical Group for an excusal.

Have your supervisor call the Public Health office at X7573 with the information on specific symptoms and personnel. For UTA weekends, First Sergeants have been made aware to forward illness information for Guard members. Public Health will continue to track base illnesses and trending data.

The symptoms of the Flu include:

Influenza (also known as the flu) is a contagious respiratory illness caused by flu viruses. It can cause mild to severe illness, and at times can lead to death. The flu is different from a cold. The flu usually comes on suddenly and may include these symptoms:

- Fever (usually high)
- Headache
- Extreme tiredness
- Dry cough
- Sore throat
- Runny or stuffy nose
- Muscle aches
- Stomach symptoms, such as nausea, vomiting, and diarrhea, also can occur but are more common in children than adults

Hand washing is the number one way to prevent illness!

Alumni News

AF Sets Up Toll-Free Line for Retirees

Air Force retirees and surviving spouses who are not connected to the Internet can use a new toll-free telephone number to get answers to their questions about pay, annuities, medical and health care, and other benefits. The number is (800) 558-1404. Those with Internet access can still use www.retirees.af.mil for benefits information.

New Law Allows Retirees and Vets to Salute Flag

Traditionally, members of the nation's veterans service organizations have rendered the hand-salute during the national anthem and at events involving the national flag only while wearing their organization's official head-gear. The National Defense Authorization Act of 2008 contained an amendment to allow un-uniformed service members, military retirees, and veterans to render a hand salute during the hoisting, lowering, or passing of the U.S. flag. A later amendment further authorized hand-salutes during the national anthem by veterans and out-of-uniform military personnel. This was included in the Defense Authorization Act of 2009.

VA Eligibility Relaxed for High-Income Vets

Restrictions have ended for many veterans who previously had been shut out of the VA health care system because they did not meet low-income thresholds. Because of a new rule change, so-called "Priority 8" veterans can enroll in the Department of Veterans Affairs health care system more easily as of June 15. Income will remain a consideration for priority treatment, with services going to those with fewer assets first. For more information, visit the VA's health eligibility Web site at <http://www.va.gov/healtheligibility/> <<http://www.va.gov/healtheligibility/>> or call (877) 222 8387 (VETS).

The next meeting of the alumni board will be on Thursday, 15 October 2009, at 1730 hours in the old Wing Conference room, building 250. Review of submissions for the CMSgt William A. Schiffer Scholarship will be accomplished and winners selected. Any past or present members with military ID are welcome to attend the meeting.

RECRUITER NEWS

Do You Need $2000 or $4000?

Become a member of our G-RAP Team

The G-RAP program was designed for drill status individuals and retirees who voluntarily apply to serve as part-time Recruiter Assistants (RA). The G-RAP program is not open to AGRs or Technicians, however, the satisfaction of bringing a member into our Wing is rewarding and very valuable to the overall mission. Recruiter Assistants will be paid for non-prior and prior service enlisted accessions. To become a Recruiter Assistant log onto www.guardrecruitingassistant.com and follow the prompts. You will go through a brief acceptance and training program leading to your RA certification.

Once certified you will be able to refer qualified applicants to 106th recruiters leading to payment. As a Recruiter Assistant you will receive $1,000 for any non-prior enlistment and another $1,000 upon shipment to Basic Military Training. For prior service enlistments you will receive $1,000 after enlistment and another $1,000 upon recruits completion of third drill. Air National Guard Recruiting Assistants, can now earn $4000 dollars for appointing a prior or non-prior officer to join the 106th Rescue Wing. Contact the recruiting office for more information or program guidance (631)723-7339.
