The Feinberg Division of the Unified Behavioral Health Center

The Mildred and Frank Feinberg Division of the Unified Behavioral Health Center is dedicated to enhancing the well being of the military communities of Long Island by offering compassionate, evidenced-based care to military families.

The Feinberg Division serves:

- Family members (including children) of any active duty, reserve duty, or Veteran from any campaign.
- Veterans who are not eligible for VA services.

The Center provides a variety of services including:

- No cost, confidential assessments.
- No cost treatment for children, adolescents, adults, couples, and families following admission.
- Comprehensive evaluations using structured interviews that carefully characterize an individual's and family's strengths, challenges, and history in order to develop customized treatment plans
- Evidence based psychotherapy services (individual, group, and family)
- Medication Management.
- Coordinated family care with the VA (when approved by the client)
- Education and supportive resources for clients and families
- Referrals for specialized longer-term behavioral health care
- Training for healthcare professionals
